

Broken World Lyrics

English

A self-obsessed, cruel world
Why must it be this way?
Look around, humanity falls apart
Why must it be this way?

They're selling heaven in hushed tones
While carving up grave stones
But freedom's just a spoken word
Why must it be this way?

Empty, lonely, broken world yeah
Tell me, who we, have become, who?
Empty, lonely, broken world yeah
Coz it's an
Empty, lonely, broken world yeah
Tell me, who we, have become, who?
Empty, lonely, broken world yeah

Love has become unknown and
Life is cheaper than things we own
It's a sign of the times
Demons within us growing
Bigger even than god all knowing

A sign of the times
It's a sign of the times

Empty, lonely, broken world yeah
Tell me, who we, have become, who?
Empty, lonely, broken world yeah
Yes it's an
Empty, lonely, broken world yeah
Tell me, who we, have become, who?
Empty, lonely, broken world yeah.
