

Cry For Me (Explicit Version) Lyrics

English

I swear,
It's like i love to see you cry,
Like i love to see them tears in those eyes,

And every time i see you down,
I get a little more torn inside,
And i don't wanna see you get gone,
Cause you know you got that therapy,

So as long as you know that,
There's no other one,
What you see is what you get with me baby,
But i'm guilty i'm guilty,

So here we go again,
I'm breaking your heart for the hunderdth time,
Here we go again,
I'm making you pay for another crime,

I'm so addicted,

To fucking with your feelings,
That every time i see you cry baby,
I love you little more inside,
A little more little more inside oh..,
A little more little more inside,

You can call me insecure,
But i rather tell you the truth then tell lies,
Cause there's something about them tears,
Like the rain falling from the night sky yeah..,

Cause when you're pulling that face,
Baby i just wanna eat you up,
So as long as you know that,
I'm a little twisted but you're the better half of me,

So forgive me forgive me,

So here we go again,
I'm breaking your heart for the hunderdth time,
Here we go again,
I'm making you pay for another crime,

I'm so addicted,
To fucking with your feelings,
That every time i see you cry baby,
I love you little more inside,

She don't love me like she used to,
Is that a game go girl that's what i'm into,
I messed around in the worst way,
Shedding tears no candles on her birthday,

So i spend my cake on her,
But she is the real chick she want my time on dollar,
Been been tryna put my name on it,
Don't wanna play i know the game,
I'm tryna change from it,

So here we go again here we go again,
I'm breaking your heart for the hunderdth time,
Here we go again,
I'm making you pay for another crime,

I'm so addicted,
To fucking with your feelings,
That every time i see you cry baby,
I love you little more inside,
A little more little more inside ..oh,
A little more little more inside,

So cry cry cry for me,
So cry cry cry for me..
