You make me fly out of the moon
I rule the world, i touch this guy
With you i feel that the world is new
I love myself because of you
I do myself because of you
You make, you make my dreams come true

The stars you know, they have my glow
I am your shadow, i treaser you
I leave for you, i die for you
You are an angel, do you have a clue
My heart is beating because of you
My breath is harming because of you
You are my soulmate, my destiny too..
