

Pretty Child Lyrics

English

Pretty child
They're cheering away
As you ride through
Your kingdom of sand
Lovely child you're
A hero today you're
A magical mystery man

Like a bird on the wing
You soar through your dreams
Let your fantasies
Sweep the skies
But you know it's unreal
The pain is so clear
Like the tears in a baby's eyes

Holy child
You fly through the night
On your faithful and
Glorious steed lonely child
Wake up to the light
Get back to your tatters
Your home on the street

Like a bird on the wing
Like a bird on the wing
You soar through your dreams
Let your fantasies
Sweep the skies
But you know it's unreal

But you know it's unreal
The pain is so clear
Like the tears in a baby's eyes
Tears in a baby's eyes

Like the tears in a baby's eyes.
